

Disaster Service Worker Volunteer Classification - Search and Rescue

19 CCR 2572.1(I)

A disaster service worker volunteer classified as search and rescue will work under the direction of the appropriate authority to perform search and rescue operations.

Classifications and General Duties

(I) Search and Rescue. Under the direction of the appropriate authority, perform search and rescue operations in one or more of several areas including, but not limited to: search and rescue; SAR conducted evidence searches; urban search and rescue; or mine and confined space rescue.